

Wheatland County Youth Fair 2019

Harlowton, Montana

65th Annual Fair Entry Book

*Accommodation Statement: WCYF will not accept liability for animals. Participants are responsible for animals. Security is not provided.

New changes are highlighted in yellow.

The main purpose of the Wheatland County Youth Fair is educational. The Fair Board strives to develop a spirit of friendly competition and good sportsmanship among the participating youth. Another purpose is to give the youth a deeper interest in their ranches and homes which leads to an appreciation for better crops, livestock and homemaking skills. In addition, the Wheatland County Youth Fair Board desires to offer our youth opportunities for making their own constructive decisions and to offer a challenge toward greater accomplishments. Participation shall not be denied on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, marital or family status, or political beliefs. Persons with disabilities should contact the Extension Office at 632-4728 at least 10 working days prior to the event so that proper consideration can be given to the request.

2019 General Livestock Rules

1. All market/breeding livestock must be shown in the arena. Unmanageable animals as determined by the Livestock committee or judge will not be permitted to show and no premium money will be paid to them.
2. All livestock entered in the auction must also be entered in the Market and Showmanship Classes. Junior livestock exhibitors may enter appropriate Showmanship Contest, however, there is no Junior Round-Robin.
3. Stalls are not reserved. First there gets first choice.
4. Stalls must be kept clean at all times. Failure to clean stall may result in loss of premiums.
5. Each person exhibiting livestock should bring enough feed and hay for their exhibits. Exhibitors should bring their own feed troughs, pails and other equipment.
6. Stalls and bedding will be furnished by the fair.
7. Livestock exhibited must be owned by the exhibitor or the immediate family, and entered in the name of the exhibitor, and be plainly marked for identification with a stall sign during the fair. Market livestock must be selected, in the possession of the exhibitors, tagged and weighed by the following dates: Beef – 1st Saturday of January of current year Hog, Lambs, Goats – 3rd Saturday of May of current year or as scheduled by the Wheatland County Fair Board.
8. Exhibitors may only have one entry in each class.
9. Only the exhibitor will be permitted to fit and care for animals on exhibit unless good reason is presented for the necessity of other arrangements to be made before showing. Abuse of this rule after a warning will mean dismissal from the Showmanship Contest.
10. Plaques and other prizes may be awarded. No prizes will be awarded unless deserving of award. All prizes and premiums will be awarded at the judges' discretion.
11. Market sale order is as follows: 1)Grand Champion and Reserve Champion may choose place in sale order 2)All blue ribbon livestock 4)All red ribbon livestock 5)All white ribbon livestock. Market beef, hogs, lambs and goats' sale order within each ribbon division will be randomly selected.
12. All animals sold at the sale become the property and responsibility of the buyer, but will be cared for and delivered at buyer's request. All feed costs will be reimbursed by buyer.
13. If there are enough animals entered to warrant further division of livestock classes listed, these breakdowns will be made at the discretion of the livestock committee and/or judge on fair day.
14. Exhibitors can only sell one beef or a combination of two small animals (hog, lamb or goat).
15. Dress should be WHITE, long-sleeved, collared shirt; closed toe shoes or boots (no tennis shoes); BLACK pants. Western hats are optional. Exhibitor must be neat and clean.
16. Every youth exhibiting livestock is automatically entered into the herdsman contest. "The Livestock Herdsmanship Award" will be given to one junior, one intermediate and one senior exhibitor. The basis of the award is superior neatness of animal and stall, sportsmanship, handling and management of their livestock and courtesy towards the public. Evidence of parental aid during the show will be up to the discretion of the judges.
17. One exhibitor can enter only one animal in the Round-Robin showmanship contest. If the exhibitor has been judged champion showman in more than one livestock class they will choose the class in which they will enter the Round-Robin Showmanship contest. The alternate showman in the other class will be allowed to enter the Round-Robin contest. Junior exhibitors are excluded from the Livestock Round-Robin Showmanship contest.
18. Educational displays are encouraged with exhibitors' projects.
19. A fee of $2.00 will be assessed to all livestock sold at auction to assist with sale costs.
20. Junior division exhibitor will not be allowed to show dairy, beef or swine; except as allowed in bum calf or bum piglet classes.
21. Show class order will be Swine, Beef, Dairy, Sheep and Goats. Classes start with showmanship in each division followed by market, feeder and breeding.
22. All market animals must meet the Food and Drug Administration regulations governing management and safety practices.
23. Approved drug withdrawal times from vaccines, health aides and growth stimulants must be followed. An "Acknowledgement of Livestock Policies" form must be signed for all market animals. No tranquilizers in any form may be administered to any animals at the fair. Animals that have not met these standards will not be allowed to sell during any authorized fair related sale. Animals that need additional withdrawal time from a veterinary treatment injection must be reported prior to the fair on the "Livestock Drug Withdrawal" form. These animals will be announced prior to the sale. The seller will take the animal home to finish the wait period then deliver the animal to the buyer's choice of slaughter destinations (within 100 miles).

24. A 2% scale variance will be acknowledged at weigh in.

Division – BEEF

2019 General Horse Rules

1. The decision of the judge is final.
2. The judge will give any specific instructions at the beginning of each class.
3. All complaints must be in writing and submitted to the Horse Show chairperson. Complaints will be adjudicated by the horse show committee. All decisions of the horse show committee in resolving complaints are final.
4. Any contestant who is coached or assisted by another person inside or outside of the arena after the class has begun will be disqualified for that class.
5. Horses do not have to be owned by the rider.
6. As soon as the horse show has begun, horses cannot be changed for an event unless approved by the horse show chairperson.
7. A horse cannot be used more than once in a class.
8. Horses considered unmanageable, unsafe or lame by the judge and/or the horse show committee will be pulled from the competition.
9. A rider may enter more than one horse in a class not requiring group work, i.e. in trail class a rider can enter more than one horse.
10. Exhibitors may not practice patterns in the arena or trail area the day of the show.
11. No stallions allowed.
12. Regardless of the time of year foaled, the age of a horse shall be computed on the basis of a calendar year starting January 1 of the year foaled. For example, a horse foaled anytime in 1988 is considered to be one year old on January 1, 1989.
13. The points from the following classes will count toward the Junior, Intermediate and Senior All-Around Western Rider Award: Showmanship, Western Horsemanship, Western Pleasure, Bareback Equitation, Western Reining and Trail Class.
14. The points from the following classes will count toward the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Timed Event Award: Barrel race, Pole Bending race, Flag race and Keyhole race.
15. The points from the following classes will count toward the All-Around English Rider Award: Showmanship, Hunt Seat Equitation, English Pleasure, Hunter Hack, Bareback Equitation, and Trail Class. Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors will compete together for this award.
16. The first and second place horse for each halter class will compete for either Grand Champion Mare or Grand Champion Gelding at the end of the halter classes. Emphasis shall be placed on type, conformation, action, soundness, quality and manners of the horse.
17. Every youth exhibiting horses is automatically entered into the herdsman contest. "The Horse Herdsmanship Award" will be given to one junior, one intermediate and one senior exhibitor. The basis for the award is superior neatness of animal and containment area (trailer), sportsmanship, handling and management of their horses and courtesy towards the public. Evidence of parental aid during the show will be up to the discretion of the judges.
18. A youth can show more than one horse, but the points compiled will go with each horse separately for the All-Around Awards or Timed Event Award.
19. If a tie occurs for the All-Around or Timed Event Awards, the champion will be the contestant who (1) earned points in the greatest number of events or (2) earned the most points in the riding events; in that order.
20. Riders will be faulted for jerking a horse's head, excessive whipping, spurring or any other abusive action to the horse.
21. Cowboy hat or approved riding helmet, long-sleeved collared shirt and boots with heels are required for western classes. Chaps and spurs are optional for western classes. Chaps cannot be worn in bareback classes.
22. For western classes the horse's bit must be a snaffle or curb. Mechanical hackamores are only allowed in timed events.

23. For English classes an English saddle is required. English snaffle, Pelham, Kimberwick, Weymouth and full bridles may be used for the horse's head gear. English clothing is not required but a hunt riding coat, britches and English boots are preferred if available. Riding helmets with harness are required for all English classes. Martingales, tiedowns, draw reins and dropped nosebands are not allowed in English classes.
24. A training hackamore, bosal or ring snaffle may be used on a horse if it is 4 years of age or younger. Two hands may be used for these training devices. It will be up to the judge to decide the age of the horse if questions arise.
25. Curb straps may be used as long as they are not made of wire, twisted chains or straps less than ½ inch wide.
26. No tiedowns or running martingales will be allowed except for timed events.
27. Timed event rules: Patterns posted at end of this section.
 Barrels: Each barrel knocked over will carry a 5 second penalty. If the pattern is not run properly the contestant will be disqualified.
 Pole Bending: Each pole knocked down will be a 5 second penalty. If the pattern is not run properly the contestant will be disqualified.
 Keyhole: Each pole knocked down will be a 5 second penalty. Contestant may turn to the right or left once past the poles.
 Flag: Contestant to remove flag from 1st barrel and place in 2nd barrel. Flag must stay in 2nd barrel or contestant receives "no time".
 Egg: Contestant must keep hand at least 2 inches away from the egg during event.

Show Expectations:

1. Reins can be carried in either hand, but are not to be changed during the class.
2. The free hand should rest on the thigh or where convenient, but must not touch the horse or saddle.
3. Riders should sit the walk and trot, not posting, except in the English riding classes. They should also stay close to the saddle in the lope.
4. Horses should be in the right lead when circling to the right, and left lead when circling to the left at all times.
5. Horses should back willingly and straight.
6. Contestants will be required to perform patterns for certain classes. Patterns will be posted prior to the class.
7. Accommodations for showmen with disabilities will be made as needed.

Definitions:

1. Leadline class is for exhibitors 7 years old and younger. The rider must ride in a saddle and the horse must be led on a leadline by a handler that is 13 years of age or older. Contestants may be asked to jog their horses but will not lope. English or Western attire is appropriate.
2. Showmanship is a class judged strictly on the contestant's ability to fit and show in a halter class. The horse is a prop to show the ability of the exhibitor. Appearance, condition, grooming, cleanliness of hair and hooves of horse will attribute to 40% of the score. Tack and clothing of the exhibitor attribute to 10%. Manners of the horse and alertness and poise of exhibitor will attribute to 50% of the score.
3. In English Hunt Seat Equitation riders will be judged on seat, hands, ability to control and show the horse. The judge may ask each rider to work individually. The rider may be asked to perform a pattern. This pattern will be posted by the judge or s/he will explain to the contestants what is wanted of them.
4. In English Pleasure classes the horses are judged at a walk, trot, and canter. Horses are judged on ease of going and manners. Horses will be penalized for being in the wrong lead at the canter.
5. In English Hunter Hack the rider will be asked to complete a pattern that may include a small jump.
6. Bareback is a class where the contestant will ride without a saddle or pad. They may be asked to walk and trot both ways in the ring. If the judge determines it to be safe, riders may be asked to lope. Chaps are not allowed in bareback classes. Western or English attire is acceptable.
7. In western pleasure classes the horses are to be judged at a walk, jog, and lope on a reasonably loose rein without undue restraint. Entries will be penalized for excessive speed or being in the wrong lead.
8. In western horsemanship classes riders will be judged on seat, hands, ability to control and show the horse. The rider may be asked to perform a pattern. This pattern will be posted by the judge or s/he will explain to the contestants what is wanted of them.
9. In western reining the rider will be asked to complete a pattern (see end of this section for pattern).
10. In riding trail classes, riders will be required to ride through an obstacle course such as opening a gate, walking over a bridge, carrying an object, backing the horse between objects, etc. Western or English attire is acceptable. This is a judged event not a timed event.
11. In in-hand trail classes, handlers will go through the same course as the riding trail class; however this class is limited to horses that are not broke to ride and 2 years old and younger. Handler must be able to control the horse alone.
